

MEET MANOMET'S SHOREBIRDS
WITH PERSONALITY

Whimbrel

The Whimbrel is a remarkable shorebird known for its distinctive call, and unique appearance. They specialize in eating small crabs, but vary their diet when needed to include berries, crawfish, grasshoppers, and marine worms - yum! They are a "curlew" - a particularly threatened group of birds.

LEARN MORE
manomet.org/noboundaries

We're on a mission to rally 600 new donors by August 31, 2025, to help turn the tide for shorebirds! Every gift—big or small—helps us protect these incredible travelers. Chip in today, and know that Whimbrels (and all of us at Manomet) are giving you a big, grateful squawk of thanks!

